FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Antibes, 23 November 2011

SY SARISSA available for charter in the Caribbean!

* FROM €105,000 a WEEK ***

Hill Robinson Yacht Management Consultants are pleased to announce Sarissa will start its charter season in the Caribbean soon and be available from February 2012.

At 42.6m, Sarissa, the largest carbon sailing yacht to be delivered by Vitters in The Netherlands will be heading to the Caribbean shortly and will be available for her first charter as of early February 2012. Designed by Bill Tripp and with a Rhoades Young interior, this modern sloop was only delivered in August 2011.

Sarissa can welcome up to 8 guests in 2 double, 1 twin and 1 convertible cabin each exquisitely styled and with the latest in audio-visual technology guaranteed to impress the most discerning charter guest. Large and clear deck spaces emphasise the size of the yacht, and with Captain Greg Monks at the helm, supported by a professional crew of 5, guests on board will feel the real power the 875m<sup>2</sup> of sail area can give.

M.Y. DIAMOND A

** AVAILABLE FOR EARLY CARIBBEAN BOOKINGS!!
SPECIAL RATE $ 349,000 ****

Diamond A has already arrived in Sint Maarten and is available for early Caribbean charters.

Diamond A is a statement that defines gracious living afloat. From the outside, the yacht is substantial and everywhere there is the generous provision of that most precious element in yachting - space. The inside emphasises comfort, large spaces, natural light and a clean simple theme. Previously known as Ultima III, she has entertained many happy guests with very successful charters. She is now ready for the new winter season...

Diamond A has 8 cabins; 6 double and 2 twins in which she can welcome up to 12 guests. Guests can enjoy lounging on the spacious decks on the comfortable sunbeds, relaxing in the jacuzzi or just simply drinking in the view from her Portuguese deck. Inside the Donald Starkey design emphasises her space.

Captain Owen Jones and his crew will make sure all guests will experience Diamond A to her fullest.
